

Wells Preschool- February Newsletter

Wow... February is already here! This school year is flying by. We have so much more planned for the rest of the school year.

Miss Banana will be back again this month; the topic will be "I Can Feel My Heartbeat."

We would like to thank all those who attended the field trip to the Children's Book Room. We had so much fun!

Valentine's Day is fast approaching, a healthy snack will be provided on this day from the school. Teachers have asked that if your child is bringing valentine's cards please only write whom it is from on the card. There are also 20 kids in each class, so please make sure you have enough valentine's for all the students. Parents are also welcome to attend in classroom activities. More details will be sent home.
